

Buffalo, Nov. 15/70.

My dear Gray:

I was unable, in my last, to tell you the effect the photograph, "bearded like a pard", had on me. It strikes you delightfully forcious. I long to see the reality.

I have very special use for two more of those photographs. Shall I send to the artist for them?

Yours ever,

L. W. Clinton.

Prof. Asa Gray.